Jason
Fantastic Friday - Taking back my calendar meant setting out clear boundaries for myself and others. And in doing, won a full a day! But part of it was really focusing only on the important, and spending as much time doing "important, not urgent" things!

Now to keep this habit going!

Best Ever - 97% of Target

James
Have to post a win.
12 months ago, I was in chaos, health was in chaos, our clients were in chaos, NZ was in lockdown chaos. Now, with the help of C4 thinking, we have caught up with our backlog.
At easter 2020 we were 53percent of our target of 95percent, so between a rock and a very hard place). We are now we at a record 97percent of target.
Thanks everyone for your help, and sorry about the hyperfocus absence last week.
Looking forward to the next goals and having a really good balance going forward.
